

Fig. S1. Third stage larvae of A. cantonensis isolated from Pomacea canaliculata collected from Uttaradit Province of Thailand. It is characterized with two chitinous rods at the anterior end (arrow) is triangular-shaped and half-opened, tail tip slightly curved (arrow-head) (40x magnification under light microscope).